DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/13/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 30-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Booth, Jr. et al. (US Patent 5,540,696). Booth, Jr. et al. disclose a surgical guide device comprising a base portion (40) having a first coupling mechanism, a fixed foot portion (58, note this may be considered fixed relative to the other foot portion) that has a first coupling mechanism (Intersection of 49 and 60), a second foot portion (44) with a second coupling mechanism (approx. 86) that may cause rotation of the second portion about an axis (86/52; see also Cols. 3 and 6), that is rotated via an actuator ("TD" in Fig. 3). Booth, Jr. et al. also disclose a superstructure (22) that has a guide (10) that is capable of use with drilling. The second foot portion has feet (see fig. 3) that, functionally recited, are capable of placement next to the posterior condyle.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 30-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9, 21, 23, 25-28, and 34-42 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892.
